EARNEST Partners' CEO Paul Viera featured by University of Michigan

December 21, 2016

ATLANTA – Paul Viera, EARNEST Partners' CEO, has been featured in the fall 2016 issue of University of Michigan's LSA magazine. The article, "The Importance of Being EARNEST" reflects on how Mr. Viera built a better kind of finance firm, weathered an economic downturn, and came out on top.

In the article, Paul Viera comments, "Our job is to look at an idea and discover the truth about that idea. Since no one individual has a universal life experience, we get closer to the truth when we have as many perspectives as possible." This foundation is what EARNEST Partners was built upon and what helped the firm succeed throughout the many different types of markets.
